Mr. William L. Kilcoin
Special Assistant to the Director
Foreign Service Institute
Department of State
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kilcoin:

Mr. Dulles has asked us to acknowledge your letter of 13 November 1957 and to express his appreciation for inviting this Agency to nominate officers to attend the course on "U.S. Diplomacy and International Organization." This new program appears to be a valuable contribution to the field of foreign affairs training, and we appreciate the opportunity afforded us to participate.

Mr. Matthew Baird, our Director of Training, will determine the availability of nominees from this Agency and will furnish information concerning them to the Registrar of the Institute prior to 1 December 1957.

Sincerely,

Signed

L. K. White
Deputy Director
